

Laws of Ohio.
PROPOSED CONSTITUTION
AMENDMENTS.

AMENDMENT NO. 1.

Resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio, Three-fifths of the members elected to each House concurring therein, That it be and hereby is proposed to the Electors of this State to vote on the second Tuesday of October next, upon the approval or rejection of the following amendments as a substitute for the twenty-fifth section of the second Article of the Constitution, and for the third section of the same article, viz: Regular sessions of the General Assembly shall commence on the first Monday of January, annually. Senators shall be elected biennially, and Representatives annually, by the electors of their respective counties or districts on the second Tuesday of October. Their term of office shall commence on the first day of January next after their election, and that of Senators shall continue two years, and that of Representatives one year. The senators elected in October next shall hold their office for two years, and the Representatives elected at the same time shall hold their offices for one year. Provided that seventeen of the senators elected on the second Tuesday of October, 1857, to be ascertained by lot as the President of the Senate may direct, shall hold their office for only one year, and their successors shall be elected on the second Tuesday of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, and biennially thereafter. When any county shall have a fraction above the whole number of senators, it shall be multiplied by ten, the result shall be equal to one or more ratios, additional representatives shall be apportioned for such ratios among the several sessions of the biennial period in the following manner: If there be only one ratio, then a representative shall be allotted to the tenth session of the biennial period. If there are two ratios, representatives shall be allotted to the ninth and tenth sessions. If three, to the eighth, ninth and tenth sessions. If four, to the seventh, eighth, ninth and tenth; if five, to the sixth, seventh, eighth, ninth and tenth; if six, to the fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth, ninth and tenth; if seven, to the fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth, ninth and tenth; if eight, to the third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth, ninth and tenth; if nine, to the second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth, ninth and tenth sessions of the biennial period respectively.

In determining the number of senators to which any senatorial district may be entitled in any biennial period, by reason of any fraction of a senatorial ratio, the fraction shall be multiplied by five, and if the result be equal to one senatorial ratio, an additional senator shall be allotted to said district in the ninth and tenth sessions. If it be equal to two such ratios an additional senator for the seventh, eighth, ninth and tenth sessions, shall be allotted to such district. If three, then to the fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth, ninth and tenth.

If four, to the third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth, ninth and tenth sessions respectively. If this amendment be adopted by the electors, the counties now entitled to more than one member in either of both branches of the Legislature in the fourth and fifth sessions of the present biennial period as now provided, shall have a like number of members in each branch thereof for each session of the remainder of the present biennial period.

N. H. VAN VORHES,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
THOMAS H. FORD,
President of the Senate.
Dated April 3, 1857.

AMENDMENT NO. 2.

Resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio, Three-fifths of the members elected to each House concurring therein, That it be and hereby is proposed to the Electors of this State to vote on the second Tuesday of October next, upon the approval or rejection of the following amendment, as a substitute for the fourth and fifth sections of the fourth Article of the Constitution, viz: Sec. 4. District Courts shall be held in each county, at least once in each year, by one or more District Judges, elected by the electors of separate districts to be prescribed by law, who shall hold their offices for five years; and during their continuance in office shall reside in the district for which they are elected. The provisions of the fourth section of this article shall apply to District Judges. The General Assembly may by law authorize the judges of the District Court, and the judges of the courts of common pleas, to fix the times of holding their respective courts. Until district judges shall have been elected and qualified, District Courts shall be held by the Judges of the Supreme Court and of the courts of common pleas, as now authorized. Sec. 5. The District Court shall have such jurisdiction as may be provided by law, and the judges thereof shall have and exercise such power and jurisdiction at chambers, and may be required to sit as judges of the courts of common pleas as shall be directed by law.

N. H. VAN VORHES,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
THOMAS H. FORD,
President of the Senate.
Dated April 3, 1857.

AMENDMENT NO. 3.

Resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio, Three-fifths of the members elected to each branch concurring therein, That it be and the same hereby is proposed to the electors of the State, to vote on the second Tuesday of October next, to approve or reject the following amendment as a substitute for the second and third sections of the twelfth article of the Constitution.

All property, personal and real, shall be subject to taxation by a uniform rule, at the true value thereof in money, but such deductions from credits as may be allowed as the General Assembly may deem expedient; provided that burying grounds, public school houses, and all other public property, and all institutions of purely public charity, and all houses used exclusively for public worship, shall be exempt from taxation; and if the value of the personal property of any person shall not exceed fifty dollars the same may be exempt from taxation. All property employed in banking shall always bear a portion of taxation equal to that imposed on the property of individuals.

N. H. VAN VORHES,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
THOMAS H. FORD,
President of the Senate.
Dated April 3, 1857.

AMENDMENT NO. 4.

Resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio, Three-fifths of the members elected to each House concurring therein, That it be and hereby is proposed to the electors of the State, on the second Tuesday of October next, to approve or reject the following amendment as a substitute for the third and fourth sections of the thirteenth article of the Constitution, viz: Corporations of every description shall be created, and corporate powers granted only by general laws which shall define the powers, privileges and immunities and prescribe the duties and liabilities of each class or description of corporations, but the General Assembly may enact special laws for the relief of corporations in peculiar cases, and may make special provisions in regard to corporations in cases where from their peculiar location or interests such special provisions are required, and may from time to time alter or repeal all such laws, as are authorized by this section.

N. H. VAN VORHES,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
THOMAS H. FORD,
President of the Senate.

AMENDMENT NO. 5.
Resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio, Three-fifths of the members elected to each House concurring therein, That it be and hereby is proposed to the electors of this State to vote on the second Tuesday of October next, upon the approval or rejection of the following amendment as a substitute for the twenty-fifth section of the second Article of the Constitution, and for the third section of the same article, viz: Regular sessions of the General Assembly shall commence on the first Monday of January, annually. Senators shall be elected biennially, and Representatives annually, by the electors of their respective counties or districts on the second Tuesday of October. Their term of office shall commence on the first day of January next after their election, and that of Senators shall continue two years, and that of Representatives one year. Provided that seventeen of the senators elected on the second Tuesday of October, 1857, to be ascertained by lot as the President of the Senate may direct, shall hold their office for only one year, and their successors shall be elected on the second Tuesday of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, and biennially thereafter. When any county shall have a fraction above the whole number of senators, it shall be multiplied by ten, the result shall be equal to one or more ratios, additional representatives shall be apportioned for such ratios among the several sessions of the biennial period in the following manner: If there be only one ratio, then a representative shall be allotted to the tenth session of the biennial period. If there are two ratios, representatives shall be allotted to the ninth and tenth sessions. If three, to the eighth, ninth and tenth sessions. If four, to the seventh, eighth, ninth and tenth; if five, to the sixth, seventh, eighth, ninth and tenth; if six, to the fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth, ninth and tenth; if seven, to the fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth, ninth and tenth; if eight, to the third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth, ninth and tenth; if nine, to the second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth, ninth and tenth sessions of the biennial period respectively.

AMENDMENT NO. 1.

In determining the number of senators to which any senatorial district may be entitled in any biennial period, by reason of any fraction of a senatorial ratio, the fraction shall be multiplied by five, and if the result be equal to one senatorial ratio, an additional senator shall be allotted to said district in the ninth and tenth sessions. If it be equal to two such ratios an additional senator for the seventh, eighth, ninth and tenth sessions, shall be allotted to such district. If three, then to the fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth, ninth and tenth.

If four, to the third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth, ninth and tenth sessions respectively. If this amendment be adopted by the electors, the counties now entitled to more than one member in either of both branches of the Legislature in the fourth and fifth sessions of the present biennial period as now provided, shall have a like number of members in each branch thereof for each session of the remainder of the present biennial period.

Speaker of the House of Representatives.
THOMAS H. FORD,
President of the Senate.
Dated April 3, 1857.

AMENDMENT NO. 2.

Resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio, Three-fifths of the members elected to each House concurring therein, That it be and hereby is proposed to the Electors of this State to vote on the second Tuesday of October next, upon the approval or rejection of the following amendment, as a substitute for the fourth and fifth sections of the fourth Article of the Constitution, viz: Sec. 4. District Courts shall be held in each county, at least once in each year, by one or more District Judges, elected by the electors of separate districts to be prescribed by law, who shall hold their offices for five years; and during their continuance in office shall reside in the district for which they are elected. The provisions of the fourth section of this article shall apply to District Judges. The General Assembly may by law authorize the judges of the District Court, and the judges of the courts of common pleas, to fix the times of holding their respective courts. Until district judges shall have been elected and qualified, District Courts shall be held by the Judges of the Supreme Court and of the courts of common pleas, as now authorized. Sec. 5. The District Court shall have such jurisdiction as may be provided by law, and the judges thereof shall have and exercise such power and jurisdiction at chambers, and may be required to sit as judges of the courts of common pleas as shall be directed by law.

CEMETRY MARBLE WORKS. Fourth St., Four Doors South of Market, East Side, Steubenville, Ohio.

M. R. HOBBS, Marble worker and Sculptor, would call the attention of all persons wanting Marble work: such as Monuments, Tablets, Grave Stones, Port and Chain Fences, Mantels and Furniture Slabs, to his establishment, where a general assortment will be kept on hand. Having no agents employed to travel the country soliciting patronage, he will be able to sell fifteen per cent lower than any other Works of the kind in the city. Being a practical workman he is prepared to get up designs of Monumental art on the shortest notice.

Cemetery work done to order.

Dry Goods Groceries, Queensware &c., LEWIS ANDERSON begs leave to inform the public that he has resumed business in the room between Garrett and McCarty's store on Third Street lower end of the Market. Where he intends to keep a general assortment of Groceries as is usually kept in Grocery Stores, the highest price paid for produce. He hopes by close attention to business and selling low to receive a liberal share of the patronage of the City and Country.

Jan. 28-'57. LEWIS ANDERSON.
